"I see Lord Fairfax," whispered Anna, "there by the door."

The old nobleman whom her smiling eyes sought out sat quietly apart, his sword across his knees, with his body serene and his face calm. His near-sighted glasses, sent squinting, searched the assembly with a lurking distrust. But not gentle like those of his own time. He turned his face toward Foy as the latter, pounding the table with his sword, suddenly spoke up loudly:

"I am just come from Philadelphia, gentlemen, where the ragamuffin congress sits, and may I say I ever saw a finer lot of noodle heads! Our Virginian cocks-of-the-walk were all there, slimy from their bell broths of treason at Williamsburg. 'Od's heart! It sickens to the marrow of the bones to see that lot, Patrick Henry, strut about in Quakerdom."

Anna clenched as if she had been stung and seized Henry's wrist. "Oh," she said under her breath, "come away! 'Tis shameful!"

"No! let us hear it," he answered. "Think you I am not used to such as that?" His voice trailed a slender line of infinite scorn. "I am not."

DANGER

We seldom fear a danger that we cannot see. The danger of being run-down by a horse is a very real one to everybody, the danger of being murdered by a microbe does not trouble us. And yet the minute microbe is more dangerous than the wildest horse.

The only people who can afford not to fear the microbes of disease are those who keep their blood pure and rich. These are practically immune from attacks of most microbes.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery purifies and enriches the blood, and gives the body a vigorous vitality. It cures scrofula, eczema, boils, pimples and other eruptive diseases which are caused by impure blood.

"I had been troubled for about four years with eczema, or a skin disease, which at times was almost unbearable as it would itch so," writes Mr. John Larison, of 115 Powhattan St., Dallas, Texas. "I concluded to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and after using five bottles found that I was entirely cured. Please accept my thanks."

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing "just as good" for diseases of the blood.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation and its consequences.

For more than one of those there had got up and were going out at this. Even among those who sided with the king there were many who had spoken open disapproval of the stamp act days and loved Henry for that if for naught else.

Foy saw it. "Aye, let them go—let them go," he sneered. "Tis time folk knew where loyalty lay, as they know with you and me, my lord."

A slow contempt went over that rugged old face. The baron had small love for this coupling. He despised the blackguard confidant of Governor Dunmore too heartily to bandy talk with him.

Foy filled his glass. "Tis said in Philadelphia," he resumed, "that one of our Virginians got on his hind legs and told them he wished to God he could fight it out single handed with George. What think you of that, Rolph?"

Lord Fairfax had deliberately turned his back upon Foy, but he shifted in his seat now at the answer of one of the quality.

Burnaby Rolph, Foy's companion of the gold lace, already heavy with the punch and rocking tipsily in his chair, lifted his head and laughed drunkenly. "Sooth," he hiccupped, "The same one offered to enlist a thousand men at his own expense and march them to relieve Boston."

Anna's face went colorless, and her fingers clasped Henry's arm with a force that made him wince. "Cruel! Cruel!" she said, for the old baron broke in, stammering with choler. "The infernal rebel!" he cried, trembling. "Is it gone so far then? Do they flout their king to his face?"

The buzz in the room ceased, and all eyes looked at the tawny old nobleman, his features working with wrath. Henry's fingers were tight closed, and Anna's white teeth bit her under lip till a spot of blood came upon it.

All in that room knew the old man. Many loved him. Not a few held lease upon his land. He was one of the last brave barons who bore his name, for the most part, whether crusaders or poets, men gentle, reckless and mindful of God—men who lived cleanly lives and died commending their souls to Jesus and bequeathing torches and sheep for their funerals. He was a man every inch of him! He blamed the king's ministers, but he loved the king.

At the loer Foy gave him some half rose angrily, but others, of the lower sort, scenting what was coming, slyly winked and smiled behind their palms. "One could scarce be too severe with such a bloody knave, my lord."

"He should rot in Tyburn!" blazed the old man.

"Swelp me!" cried Foy with a coarse laugh. "And who, gentlemen, think you was this hangman's cur, this dirty factious scoundrel? Why, Colonel Washington, I faith—turncoat since the French war!"

There were murmurs at this from all sides, even from these Tories, at the trap that had been set, at the wanton affront to a friendship that had been well known throughout the colony since the days when Lawrence Washington first brought sweet Anne Fairfax from Belvoir to Mount Vernon.

"Hound!" ground Henry between his teeth. A cold hand seemed pressed upon Anne's heart.

The stanch old loyalist's face had turned a gray white. He half choked, and his hand went fumbling to the lace at his throat. He was silent for a moment, his great brows together, his fingers on the arm of the chair clasping and unclasping, while Foy sneered audibly in the quiet.

"Not George!" he faltered at length. Something almost like a dry sob escaped him. He seemed not to see the sneering face before him, now searching about for applause. He turned to the company with a gesture appealing and pathetic.

"Why, gentlemen," he said—"why I've known him since he was sixteen! I remember in '48 when he was a ruddy faced boy and ran my lines for me! The Whigs have misled him, maybe, but he could not take up arms against—his king!"

There was a little stir in the place, a sort of waiting silence. Then a young man arose in the back part of the room and bowed gracefully. It was M. Armand, and he held a slender stemmed glass, which he filled.

"Messieurs," he said simply, "I am not of your country, nor am I of the allegiance of your king. My country is one far away, and it is one that has learned of war to love a soldier and a brave man."

As he spoke Henry's face lighted with a great flash of surprise and pleasure. He did not see the white and red changing in his companion's cheek, did not note her uneven breath nor the wondrous beauty that came softly courtesying in her eyes.

The voice went on: "But we of my country know one American so well—we know him because it is against our own arms that he has fought, before Duquesne. Messieurs, I pledge you a brave man, Colonel George Washington!"

Armand lifted his glass gravely as he finished and drank, and a little hushed cheer ran around the room. One could not have told from the speaker's face that he knew he had drunk alone. My Lord Fairfax had no glass, but he rose in his seat and bowed to him.

The toast drunk, Armand set down the glass with a clash on to the table. His face became all at once set and cold, and he stood very straight. "One thing more, messieurs," he said, "we know in my country. We know the courtesy. Our postillions know what is due to the gentleman of birth. And thus," he turned sharply upon Foy—"I teach it to you—you dog of the kennel!"

With this he flung the glass full into his face.

No unexpected had been the action that Anne gave a little scream, unnoted in the stir across the sill, and Henry let out a great oath of admiration.

Foy's countenance turned a devil's, and his sword was out before he got up. Armand bowed to Lord Fairfax and then to Foy. "Monsieur," he asked the latter, "is the affront to your liking?"

"Sdeath and wounds!" raved Foy in a fury. "We need go no farther than here to settle this! I killed a man at Minden for less."

The old baron got up, with the aid of his negro body servant, breathing heavily. "Sirs," he protested, "let there be no bloodshed, I beg of you!"

"My lord!" Armand's voice was quiet and contained, and it was all he said. Lord Fairfax stopped short, looked at him a moment, swallowed and stood still.

Rolph came lurching forward, his shifty eyes sobered by the outcome. "Gentlemen," he cried, "clear the room and send the servants away. We shall need to confer."

The baron crossed the room at this and held out his hand. "I beg of you," he said, "to honor me by your presence at Greenway Court tomorrow."

"I thank you, my lord," said Armand. Then the old man, with his head up, erect and leaning on his servant's arm, passed out to his chariot. He knew very well that Foy was reputed to be the best swordsman in the colonies.

"Have you a friend who will serve?" asked Rolph. Armand shook his head. "Aye," said Henry fiercely, and, swinging his long legs over the sill, he strode into the room. "If you will allow me, sir!"

Anna waited to hear no more, but ran back through the courtyard to the door. Her eyes, blinded by tears, scarce saw the great, gaunt figure till she felt his hand upon her hair.

"You here, my dear, in Winchester?" he said gayly. "You must ride to Greenway Court. We shall be blithe for you! I have just invited a guest for tomorrow."

Looking up as she held his hand, Anne saw two drops—little shining miniatures of his big heart—roll down his cheeks.

HUSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS*BACK TO HARBOR*Vladivostok Squadron Regains Shelter Under Cover of a Fog.*LITTLE FURTHER NEWS*Details of the Sinking of the Japanese Transport Kin Shiu Maru Are Still Lacking.*Some Disposition to Criticize Harshly the Action of Rear Admiral Yeszen.

Shanghai, April 29.—It is reported here that the Russians have suffered a disastrous repulse after two days' fighting on the Yalu river. The Japanese forces crossed the river and the Russians retreated.

London, April 29.—A Tokio correspondent asserts that the Russian cruisers slipped past the Japanese squadron during a fog and regained the harbor of Vladivostok.

This is the only additional news that has reached London concerning the Vladivostok squadron. No further details have been received regarding the sinking of the Japanese transport Kin Shiu Maru, which incident is much commented on here as proving that the Japanese placed too great confidence in their command of the sea, and there is no doubt that it will induce greater vigilance on their part.

There is some inclination to criticize harshly the action of Rear Admiral Yeszen, but most of the papers prefer to await particulars of the affair before passing judgment upon it.

The report that the Japanese have occupied Kifu Tiencheng has not yet been confirmed.

According to a Tien Tsin correspondent the whole country outside the great wall is abnormally flooded, and any movement of the land forces is impracticable for the present. A special dispatch from Port Arthur says that the demonstration made by Japanese torpedo boats covered by a Japanese squadron off Port Arthur yesterday morning was for the purpose of creating a scare and inducing the batteries to waste their ammunition, but the Russians refrained from answering the Japanese fire.

A Copenhagen correspondent says there are rumors that Russia is negotiating for the purchase of the Danish liners Hekla, Norge and Island.

IT GIVES THEM HOPE*Vladivostok Squadron Offers Encouragement to Dispirited Russians.

St. Petersburg, April 29.—The operations of the Vladivostok squadron have revived the spirits of the people of St. Petersburg, who have been downcast since the destruction of the Petropavlovsk and the consequent confinement of the remnant of the Port Arthur fleet to the harbor. The fact that the navy is doing something of an offensive character appeals to the popular mind, which has been unable to appreciate the reason for the inactivity of the fine ships of the Vladivostok squadron.

It is generally recognized that Rear Admiral Yeszen cannot do more than frighten the Japanese and compel them to exercise greater care in their military movements, as the sinking of a few transports or even cruisers can have no permanent effect on the result of the war. Moreover, he is bound by his instructions not to risk his ships unduly, the intention being to keep them safe for an attack with the Baltic fleet when it arrives in the Pacific.

The possibility of a Japanese attempt to mine the entrances to Vladivostok, as was done at Port Arthur, is considered, but the conditions are different and, besides, Rear Admiral Yeszen with the lesson of the Petropavlovsk disaster fresh in his mind, will observe the utmost caution.

St. Petersburg is loaded with rumors regarding the sinking of the Japanese military transport, the Kin Shiu Maru. One report has it that 3,600 men were aboard the transport when she went down, but the admiralty insists that there were only 200. It is said that the emperor is highly indignant over the affair and that he will relieve Yeszen and order him to be court-martialed. This report lacks confirmation in responsible naval circles, where it is reiterated that no other course could be pursued, and that the admiral only fired when the Japanese categorically refused to surrender and adopted a hostile attitude.

Submarine Boat Plans.

Port Arthur, April 29.—One of the submarine boats which were put in commission April 24 was received in section at Port Arthur before the war began. At the first opportunity it is intended that the submarine vessel shall be employed against the heavy ships of the enemy.

Cold Delays Army's Advance.

Liao Yang, April 29.—The delay of the forward movement of the Japanese army Manchuria is due to the exceptionally severe weather. It is rumored that there is considerable suffering among the Japanese troops due to illness and the intense cold.

DO NOT WANT WAR*Chinese People Not Prepared to Take Aggressive Action.

Paris, April 29.—Mr. Souen, the Chinese minister, in an interview said that his government could not view with satisfaction Russia's indefinite occupation of Manchuria, but that it was determined to maintain good relations with the Russian government. War, the minister said, was not desired at Peking. If any counsellors existed who were unreasonable enough to propose to attack Russia while that country was engaged with Japan they would not meet with any credit from Chinese statesmen familiar with foreign affairs.

"China has no interest in attacking Russia," continued the minister. "We are fully aware that intervention might cause dangerous complications, the outcome of which would be fatal to China herself. Whatever our sympathies may be we will not launch our country into a wild adventure."

"Our trained troops near the great wall do not exceed 20,000, and it is not with such a force that the Russian army could be conquered. Japanese aid would not help us much and, moreover, the court is not anxious to introduce the Japanese army into China, even for the purpose of defending the country."

"At the same time it is certain that the Chinese masses are favorable to Japan. Our government's sole care, according to our latest advice, is to restrain popular excitement and the strictest orders have been given to the local authorities to use even unaccustomed rigor for the purpose of preventing risings. I sincerely trust that these precautions will suffice, even in the event of Japanese success, but it must be remembered that our subjects have very inadequate means of enforcing obedience when the masses become greatly excited. The only danger of complications lies in a spontaneous rising of the people."

Children Cause Divorce.

Knoxville, Tenn., April 29.—Mrs. R. L. Taylor has been granted a divorce from ex-Governor Robert L. Taylor in chancery court after the depositions of a few witnesses had been read. The question of alimony was referred to the clerk and master for settlement. Mr. Taylor has served three terms as governor of Tennessee, and has a national reputation as a lecturer and musician. Mrs. Taylor was Mrs. Alice Pitts Hill of Tuscaloosa, Ala., before her marriage to the ex-governor three years ago. Both had children by former marriages, and they, it is alleged, caused the unhappiness.

Shot Without Warning.

Kansas City, April 29.—Dick Malloy, a saloon keeper, was shot and killed here by William Burgoyne. Burgoyne is known as a "killer" to the police of many Western cities. Six weeks ago he shot and killed Fred Hunnel, a switchman, in a fight in this city, but was discharged at his preliminary hearing. Burgoyne is also known as a politician in St. Louis. Since coming to this city two years ago he has held several municipal positions. Burgoyne shot Malloy without warning, but the shooting was the renewal of a previous quarrel.

Deed of an Insane Woman.

Jeffersonville, Ind., April 29.—Clara Cooley, twenty-three years old, supposed to be insane, drowned her eighteen-months-old child in a creek at New Providence, on the Monon railway, twenty miles north of here. A neighbor saw Miss Cooley pass his home on her way to the creek, and later she returned with the dead infant in her arms and told what she had done.

Get an Increase in Wages.

Lynn, Mass., April 29.—The strike of 600 counter-workers on April 6 in a number of the Lynn shoe factories has been settled. The strikers obtain a slight reduction in the hours of labor and an increase in wages. The agreement signed is for three years.

Boers Seeking New Homes.

Chihuahua, Mex., April 29.—It is stated by one of the Boer agents in this city that 500 Boer families are expected to arrive here soon to establish a colony near Mesqui. The colony established near here about a year ago is flourishing.

Strike Fizzles Out.

Quincy, Mass., April 29.—The strike at the Fore River ship and engine works appears to be nearing an end. The forgers and molders have returned to work and cooperatives applied for their old places today.

TERSE TELEGRAMS

BIBLE SAVED HIM*Assassin's Bullet Lodged In Pocket Bible Carried by Robins.*HE HAD A CLOSE CALL*Candidate For Mayor at Jeffersonville Shot at Through Open Window of Home.*One Bullet Splintered Back of His Chair the Other Found Billet in Bible.

Jeffersonville, Ind., April 29.—An attempt to assassinate D. M. Robins, candidate for mayor of Jeffersonville on the independent labor ticket, was made late at night at his home, 313 Meigs avenue. Mr. Robins was seated at a table in the front room when two shots were fired in quick succession and two bullets went through the lace curtains at the side of the front window on a line with Mr. Robins' body. The first shot tore a splinter from the back of the chair in which he was seated, and the second struck a lamp chimney on the table, smashing it to pieces, then lodged in a Bible that Mr. Robins carried in the pocket of his waistcoat. Robins had received anonymous letters, warning him that his life was in danger.

HOWARD TATE'S TRIAL*On Charge of Murder Attracts Attention at Petersburg.

Petersburg, Ind., April 29.—The trial of Howard Tate for the murder of John Hodges, at Huntingburg, Dubois county, brought here on change of venue, is attracting widespread attention, and bids fair to be one of the hardest-fought trials in the history of the county. Both Tate and Hodges were boarders at a boarding-house much frequented by railway men, at Huntingburg. There was a quarrel between them, inspired, as alleged, by jealousy, and Hodges left the house. He was followed by Tate, and the shooting occurred in the street. Tate fired four shots, all of them taking effect, and Hodges, it is further stated, ran to him, placing his foot on his breast and clutching him with his revolver, but was prevented by bystanders from continuing the assault. All of the witnesses are subjected to severe cross-examination, it being claimed by the defendant that Hodges lay in waiting for Tate, armed with a brick and a knife, and that he did not use his revolver until after his own life had been threatened.

Among the interested spectators is a son of Andrew Johnson, whose father was killed at Pineville, Ky., as alleged, by the defendant, while the senior Johnson was serving as a police officer.

man in that city. The son is now deputy sheriff of Bell county, Kentucky. Johnson feels bitter toward the accused, and he also says that Tate was concerned in the killing of a man named Gregory in Wise county, Virginia, four years before his own father was killed.

The Gillespie Case.

Rising Sun, Ind., April 24.—The May term of the Ohio circuit court will begin Monday next, Judge Downey presiding, and the cases against James Gillespie, Mrs. Belle Seward and Myron Barbour and wife, charged with the murder of Elizabeth Gillespie, will be called on the first day. Both sides are ready for trial. It has been decided not to ask for a change of venue. Judge Downey has ordered a special venire of 200 names to be drawn, from which jurors will be selected. James Gillespie's long confinement in jail has not dampened his spirits, and he is buoyant in manner and expresses himself confident of acquittal. The other defendants appear unconcerned. The feeling against the murderer of Miss Elizabeth Gillespie continues as it did the night the tragedy was enacted, but confidence is expressed in Judge Downey and his court that justice will be done.

Dropped to His Death.

Paoli, Ind., April 29.—Walter Bradshaw dropped to his death, and Joseph D. Murphy was dangerously injured by a fall of seventy feet from a swinging scaffold on the 100-foot trestle of the Monon railway. In the fall Bradshaw struck on his head and shoulders and died in a few minutes. Murphy caught hold of a broken plank, to which he clung for a few seconds, breaking the force of his fall.

John W. Terrell Sentenced.

Bluffton, Ind., April 29.—John W. Terrell, convicted by a jury on Dec. 20 of murder in the first degree for shooting his son-in-law, Melvin Wolfe, on July 12 last, has been sentenced to state's prison for life by Judge Smith. Terrell has been declared insane and his attorneys will carry his case to the supreme court in an effort to secure his confinement in an asylum instead of the penitentiary.

To Protect Telephone Girls' Ears.

Muncie, Ind., April 29.—On complaint of the young women telephone operators in the local exchanges the police will hereafter visit men who are accustomed to use profanity over the telephone, and will warn them that repetitions of this offense will result in arrest. The young women claim that they are offended almost daily in this manner.

WHAT IS CATARRH—?

When we talk of "Catarrh" you must not think we mean only that form of catarrh which affects the nose and throat, and is very similar to a bad cold. Catarrh is a disease that attacks any part of the body, wherever the mucous membrane extends, and that is practically all over the entire system, for the mucous membrane is the delicate lining of all the organs of the body.

Catarrh is inflammation and congestion of the mucous membrane wherever located.

Consequently you can have catarrh in any part of the body. Your back may ache or you may have headaches, a disordered stomach or bladder trouble. Possibly there are no acute symptoms and you are merely run down and worn out—so miserable that you feel tired of life.

HEED NATURE'S WARNING.

All these are symptoms of catarrh. They are Nature's warning that some part of the mucous membranes has become inflamed and the little cells stopped up with poisonous secretions.

Rexall Mucu-Tone was created to correct these unhealthy conditions.

PROMPT, HEALTHY STIMULATION
Mucu-Tone, working through the bloodvessels, is carried by them direct to the inflamed membranes. Here it drives out the poisons and allays the inflammation.

If you try Mucu-Tone for any of the troubles above described and it doesn't do what we claim, all you have to do is to say so and we will hand you back your money without question.

Sold only at our store. Large bottle, 89 cents.

SAYS MUCU-TONE SURELY CURES CATARRH.

"I feel as if every one who suffers from catarrhal affections should know of the merits of Mucu-Tone. It surely cures catarrh, as I can testify. I had for a long time been a sufferer from nasal and bronchial catarrh, and had tried local treatments and so-called catarrh cures without any lasting benefit. A friend of mine who had been cured of catarrh of the stomach by the use of Mucu-Tone urged me to try that remedy. As a result I am entirely cured not only of catarrh but of the debility which seems always more or less associated with the disease."

C.F. Ritchel

Bridgeport, Conn.
Professor Ritchel has made a remarkable record as an inventor. It was he who gave the world the original Parlor or Roller Skate. He was also the inventor of a brush making machine which revolutionized the brush making industry.

"After suffering for two years with pain in the back, and having tried all other remedies without obtaining any relief, I saw your advertisement of Rexall Mucu-Tone and got a sample. It did so much good that I kept using it. Several bottles effected a perfect cure, leaving no pain whatever. My husband, also, is a very hard man to get relief from pain, but nothing has cured him like Rexall."

Republican City Ticket.

For Mayor
GEORGE G. GRAESSLE.

For Treasurer
THOMAS J. CLARK.

For Clerk
FRED EVERBACK.

For Marshal
JOHN H. HOPEWELL.

For Judge
HALLECK C. DANNETTELL.

For Councilmen, First Ward
JOHN A. GOODALE.
W. JESSE WEAVER.

For Councilmen, Second Ward
AUGUST CORDES.
THOMAS JONES.

For Councilmen, Third Ward

For Councilmen, Fourth Ward
HENRY P. MILLER.
JOHN W. MORTON.

For Councilmen, Fifth Ward
HAL A. LOVE.
FRANK BRETHAUER.

The progress and prosperity of a city depends largely on the character of its officials. A clean, wholesome and economical administration is what every city needs and that is what Seymour can have by electing the republican ticket next Tuesday.

It is entirely true that Seymour never had a better treasurer than Thos. J. Clark. His record is as good as the best. Every taxpayer has entire confidence in him. The voters will express their appreciation of his faithful service by reelecting him next Tuesday.

We suggest to Judge Wesner that after he wears all the boys out blowing his "tin horn," he next impose on the dogs. It would be a bright idea for him to catch all the dogs in town and tie a tin can to their tails with this motto: "If I can't win I can't run.—Wesner."

WESNER exercises his constitutional right to run for office without modesty, but with due regard to salary. When he became city judge, he besieged the legislature to amend the law and provide a salary for him, but he could not convince that law-making body of the public necessity although he admitted the personal need. He then implored the common council of our city to take care of him, and that body, although it has been known to be "good" to almost every other democratic lawyer in town, said "no" to his appeal. They waited to see whether he was worth it, and then in the waning days of his term and of theirs actually attempted to abolish his office and take away his title. Then he ran for mayor. The salary to that office is by no means certain, and it is not unlikely that the incoming council would take into account the value of the man in fixing the salary.

JUDGE MONTGOMERY.

The nomination of our fellow townsman, Hon. Oscar H. Montgomery for supreme judge is a distinguished honor to Seymour and Jackson county. Mr. Montgomery richly deserves the honor conferred upon him and his neighbors and friends at home and his many friends over the state, regardless of party, heartily congratulate him. No man in the state is more worthy of this honor than he and the convention in nominating him by acclamation, honored itself and the republican party. He will discharge the important duties that fall to a supreme judge with distinguished ability and will take rank with the best judges that have ever sat upon the supreme bench of Indiana.

So far as the REPUBLICAN knows no man from Jackson county has ever been nominated for a state office by either party and been elected. Mr. Montgomery's election, for we are sure that he will be elected next November, will be the first. This will be an honor that every resident of Jackson county can share. Judge Montgomery was born in Jackson county, his home has always been here and this will continue to be his residence. We are all proud of him.

CONGRESS adjourned for the session Thursday. This has been a busy and important session of congress and much important legislation has been enacted.

THE republican state ticket has been nominated but as yet the democrats have no candidates. No one seems to care to lead a forlorn hope in this year of 1904.

THE office of city marshal is one of much importance. There is need of improvement in this department of our city government. By electing J. H. Hopewell next Tuesday a forward step will be taken. You will make no mistake by voting for J. H. Hopewell.

FRED EVERBACK has all the qualifications that go to make an excellent city clerk and he is in every way worthy the support of the voters of Seymour. He will attend to the duties of the clerk's office in a manner that will be commended by every fair minded man.

A MONTH ago John Congdon was working with the city council to have the office of city judge abolished. Failing in that he became a candidate for this very same office that he wanted abolished and is now busy handing out his cards. But the people will hardly elect him to an office which he thinks is useless. They will elect H. C. Dannetteil who believes the office serves a useful purpose.

THE voters of Seymour will choose wisely by electing Dr. G. G. Graessle mayor next Tuesday. He is a man of ability and high professional and business standing and will give to Seymour a progressive and clean administration. Every one has the utmost confidence in his integrity and his capability. You will make no mistake by giving Dr. Graessle your earnest support and vote. He will be such a mayor as Seymour needs and will be proud of.

WORLD'S FAIR PARTY.

B. & O. S-W. Bears Distinguished Party to St. Louis Today.

At 2:05 this afternoon Secretary Taft, of President Roosevelt's cabinet, Governor Herrick of Ohio, Mayor Fleischman, of Cincinnati, and several other distinguished men passed through here on a special train over the B. & O. S-W. on their way to St. Louis to be present at the opening of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition.

Secretary Taft goes as the personal representative of President Roosevelt and he and his party will be shown many courtesies during the opening days of the exposition.

A hundred or more people were at the station when the train pulled in here today and took a peep through the car window at Secretary Taft. The special train was in charge of Conductor M. C. Whitcomb and Engineer Lefe Banta was at the throttle. They are making a run against time and will probably lower the speed record between Cincinnati and St. Louis. The run from Cincinnati to Seymour was made in two hours. The train is made up entirely of new equipment purchased for the World's Fair traffic.

Johnson County Claims.

Johnson county seems to be forging to the front in the number of state officers and prospective state officers. Hugh T. Miller who was yesterday given the republican nomination for lieutenant governor and Fasset A. Cotton who was renominated for the office of superintendent of public instruction, were both born and raised at Nineveh in the southern part of this county. And Hon. R. A. Brown who is serving his second term as clerk of the supreme court was born, raised and spent the greater part of his life in Franklin township. This is a record of which Johnson county citizens may well be proud and it is safe to make the assertion that it can be duplicated by no county in the state, not even Marion.—Franklin Star.

Japan.

The Review of Reviews for May provides a group of entertaining and instructive articles on the Russo-Japanese war and cognate topics. In addition to the careful editorial treatment of the events of the month in "The Progress of the World," there is a sketch of the great sea-fighter, Admiral Togo, written by a Japanese, followed by "Fifty Years of Japan," from the pen of a Japanese journalist, Adachi Kinosuke, who sums up in this paper the striking progress of his people during the half-century that has elapsed since the ships of Commodore Perry opened Japan to the influences of western civilization.

A Continual Strain.

Many men and women are constantly subjected to what they commonly term "a continual strain" because of some financial or family trouble. It wears and distresses them both mentally and physically, affecting their nerves badly and bringing on liver and kidney ailments with the attendant evils of constipation, loss of appetite, sleeplessness, low vitality and despondency. They cannot, as a rule, get rid of this "continual strain," but they can remedy its health destroying effects by taking frequent doses of Green's August Flower. It tones up the liver, stimulates the kidneys, insures healthy bodily functions, gives vim and spirit to one's whole being and eventually dispels the physical or mental distress caused by that "continual strain." Trial bottle of August Flower, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

Only One More Regular Meeting for Present Council.

The Seymour city council met in regular session last night. Mayor Shields presided and all councilmen but Heuser were present. After the minutes were read and approved the following business was transacted:

The finance committee reported that Treasurer Clark's report for March had been audited and found correct.

The board of public improvement reported that bids were received for painting the cannon and the monument in the city park and that the contract was awarded to Charles Hirtzel at his bid of $21. Report approved.

The street commissioner reported on work done in his department the past two weeks which was approved.

The fire chief reported that the new fire hose had been tested and found all right.

The clerk read a statement from United States Marshal Pettit giving amount of the judgement against the city in the case of the Farmers Loan and Trust Company against the city of Seymour. The total amount of the judgement with costs is $3435.34, on which there is a credit of $61.10 leaving a balance of $3,374.24. The original judgement was $2718.47. Interest and court costs added to this make the total amount as given above. The claim was referred to the finance committee with power to order the same paid today if found correct.

An ordinance to grant to D. L. Prall a franchise to put in a telephone system in Seymour was read the first time.

A few of the councilmen presented matters pertaining to the repair of streets which were referred to the street commissioner.

A communication from the Jackson County Medical Society inviting the mayor and the councilmen to hear an address to be delivered by Dr. Theodore Potter on the subject of Tuberculosis, was read.

Council adjourned about 8:40.

Testimony of a Minister.

Rev. Jno. S. Cox, of Wake, Ark., writes, "For 12 years I suffered from Yellow Jaundice. I consulted a number of physicians and tried all sorts of medicines, but got no relief. Then began the use of Electric Bitters and feel that I am now cured of a disease that had me in its grasp for twenty years." If you want a reliable medicine for liver and kidney trouble, stomach disorders. It's guaranteed by W. F. Peter Drug Co. Only 50c.

WEATHER FORECAST.

Hick Outlines our Weather for the Month of May.

The following weather forecast is taken from Word and Works by Rev. Irl Hicks for May.

First week will bring many active if not dangerous storms. Look out for a change to very warm, coming from west to east, barometer falling very low—from 3d to 6th violent storms will pass eastward—with possible tornadoes—heavy downpours of rain and hail with great electrical displays—followed by sudden change to very cool with frosts.

Storm conditions again 8th, 9th and 10th, with high temperature and storms of greater or less violence, with heavy thunder and rain storms at spasmodic intervals till 14th—possible brief sudden cold spell with frost about 10th.

About 14th look for another warm wave with low barometer, coming eastward, with warm humid air.

Next regular storm conditions 20th to 23rd, with change to warmer and falling barometer, and more rain storms spreading eastward with crisis, 22d to 23d, followed by quite cool.

Last storm period of the month comes from 24 to 29, central 26th, this with rising temperature and low barometer, active storms 27th, 28th and 29th, and possibly dangerous.

Between storm period there will be much bright, light, warm, sunny weather.

Of course, this weather will not be all at one place at the same time.

PUNY CHILDREN.

Parents Should Know How to Keep Children Well—Expert Advice by Seymour Druggist.

"We do not wish to blame any of our friends for that which they cannot help, but sometimes when we see delicate and puny children, we cannot help feel that parents are neglectful," said Mr. Peter of the W. F. Peter Drug Co., during a recent interview.

"If we could only make all fathers and mothers in Seymour regard what we say, especially if their little ones are delicate, how glad they would be afterward. They can make their children strong and well. They can lay a foundation stone in their little lives that will give them joy and happiness in years to come and they will become strong and hearty men and women, if they will only believe what we say about Vinol and follow our advice."

Remember Vinol contains all the active curative principals taken directly from fresh cods' livers without grease or oil, and its taste is delicious and that is what gives it such power to assist the stomach of the little ones to properly assimilate the food which they eat. It is the means by which rich, red blood is made; strong bone structure is built; hard, firm, flesh tissue is created, and healthy, sound nerves maintained.

Mrs. Jennie Perse, 169 Newman St., Mansfield, O., says:

"I wish to add a few words of praise for Vinol. My little boy was very much run down, so much so that he had to leave school. He really was a mere shadow. I decided to give him Vinol, and he is rapidly gaining flesh. I wish to recommend Vinol to every mother who has puny, ailing children."

Not only for children but for adults do we recommend Vinol as the greatest strength creator and builder of health, without reservation, and stand prepared to refund all money to those who do not find absolute satisfaction in its use. W. F. Peter Drug Co.

Mrs. Reeves leaves a husband and four children, a mother, two brothers and two sisters to mourn her death.

MURPHY.—Mrs. Lydia Murphy, aunt of Allen Swope, of this city, died at her home at Jeffersonville Thursday April 28, aged 83 years. She had a number of friends and acquaintances in this county. Funeral Friday and burial at Cave Hill cemetery.

WISSMAN.—Zelma Wissman, the little three and a half year old daughter of William Wissman and wife, died at the family home in Columbus Friday morning, April 29. The funeral will be at Jonesville at 1:30 Sunday afternoon. Mr. Wissman is the treasurer of Bartholomew county and some years ago lived in this city.

Saves Two From Death

"Our little daughter had an almost fatal attack of whooping cough and bronchitis," writes Mrs. W. K. Haviland, of Armonk, N. Y., "but, when all other remedies failed, we saved her life with Dr. King's New Discovery. Our niece, who had consumption in an advanced stage, also used this wonderful medicine and today she is perfectly well." Desperate throat and lung diseases yield to Dr. King's New Discovery as to no other medicine on earth. Infallible for coughs and colds. 50c and $1.00 bottles guaranteed by W. F. Peter Drug Co. ### $100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that Science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucus surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

STERILITY

How shall a mother who is weak and sick with some female trouble bear healthy children?
How anxious women ought to be to give their children the blessing of a good constitution!
Many women long for a child to bless their home, but because of some debility or displacement of the female organs, they are barren.

Preparation for healthy maternity is accomplished by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound more successfully than by any other medicine, because it gives tone and strength to the parts, curing all displacements and inflammation.

Actual sterility in woman is very rare. If any woman thinks she is sterile, let her write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., whose advice is given free to all expectant or would-be mothers. The medicine that instantly asserts its curative powers in the ills of women is

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Read these Two Remarkable Cures.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—During the early part of my married life I was very delicate in health. I had two miscarriages, and both my husband and I felt very badly as we were anxious to have children. A neighbor who had been using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advised me to try it, and I decided to do so. I soon felt that my appetite was increasing, the headaches gradually decreased and finally disappeared, and my general health improved. I felt as if new blood coursed through my veins, the sluggish tired feeling disappeared, and I became strong and well. "Within a year after I became the mother of a strong healthy child, the joy of our home. You certainly have a splendid remedy, and I wish every mother knew of it. Sincerely yours, MRS. ANNA POTTS, 510 Park Ave., Hot Springs, Ark."

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I was married for five years, and gave birth to two premature children. After that I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it changed me from a weak, nervous woman to a strong, happy and healthy wife within seven months. Within two years a lovely little girl was born, which is the pride and joy of our household. If every woman who is cured feels as grateful and happy as I do, you must have a host of friends, for every day I bless you for the light, health and happiness your Vegetable Compound has brought to my home. Sincerely your friend, MRS. MAE P. WHARRY, Flat 31, The Norman, Milwaukee, Wis." Sec. Northshore Oratorical Society.

$5000 FORFEIT if we cannot forthwith produce the original letters and signatures of above testimonials, which will prove their absolute genuineness.

THE PLATFORM

Principles Upon Which Republicans Will Fight the Campaign.

The Republican party in convention assembled presents with profound satisfaction the achievements of the nation since the party was founded and intrusted by the people with the control of our government.

It has reunited a divided country, freed the slaves, established the monetary system on a gold basis, restored the national credit, and developed the American system of protection, until the United States is the leading industrial nation of the world.

In the cause of humanity it fought a victorious war on land and sea that other peoples might be released from the burdens of oppression.

These and other national deeds of peace and war under Republican administrations have won the respect and praise of the world, and placed our country in the first rank amongst the nations.

And now, under continuing wise and patriotic leadership, the Republican party moves forward, maintaining and extending its policies and its purposes, and with unabated confidence again invites the support and suffrages of the people.

We heartily and unreservedly endorse the wise and patriotic administration of Theodore Roosevelt. The president has not the tremendous responsibilities of his great office upon the high level of national duty and national honor. His administration has been thoroughly Republican and genuinely American. It has advanced prosperity at home and maintained our national interests abroad. The laws have been wisely and impartially enforced as they were enacted by congress. Evil doers have been driven from the public service.

The people demand a continuance of the present stable and prosperous conditions, and we therefore favor the reelection of Theodore Roosevelt for president, and hereby instruct the delegates chosen by this convention to support his candidacy.

We pledge anew our confidence in the wisdom and efficiency of the protective tariff. This great Republican policy has abundant justification in itself and its maintenance is essential to the continuance of our industrial independence and national prosperity.

It is demanded alike in the interest of both American labor and capital. We favor changes of schedules as conditions demand, but such changes should only be made consistently with the policy of protection.

The Republican party has firmly established the gold standard against violent combinations and the influence of the Democratic opposition. Our monetary system, which is the best in the world, is the rich fruit of Republican statesmanship. We have more money than any other nation, and it is of unquestioned soundness and purchasing power.

We commend President Roosevelt for his faithful enforcement of the laws applicable to combinations and in the interest of the whole people and commerce, which the Democratic party, when in power, refused to execute, and the laws of the state have been placed on the statute books additional laws providing for publicity, preventing rebates by railroads, and creating the Department of Commerce and Labor for the more effective supervision and enforcement of the laws.

We approve the reciprocity treaty with the republic of Cuba.

Our relations with the new republic should always be characterized by justice and generosity; to the end that the ties which bind the two peoples together in commerce and amity may continue close and unbroken.

We approve the course of President Roosevelt in protecting the imperiled interests of Americans upon the Isthmus of Panama. In promptly recognizing the independence of the people and the republic of Panama, and in securing a treaty with that republic under which the United States may construct an inter-oceanic canal in the interest of the commerce of the world, we further commend the president for the promptness and energy with which he is pushing forward the work of this great enterprise.

American administration in the Philippines has resulted in peace and order, honest government, equal justice to all, improvement in material conditions and the spread of education. No nation so young and so backward has progressed so far in the history of the world. To that policy we will steadfastly adhere.

During the period of the contract labor in the state prisons has been abolished, and by statutory limitation only two years' term for the continuance of the contract labor system in the Reformatory at Jeffersonville. We declare our opposition to any renewal of the labor contract for the thorough training of each and every inmate in the institution, giving him such an education, training in industry or handicraft as will enable him upon his release to more fully earn his own support and make him a more self-reliant and self-supporting citizen.

Among other wise and just measures placed upon the statute books during this period are the acts creating a labor commission and providing means for the settlement of disputes between the employer and the employee, and providing that all fees of state officers and miscellaneous receipts into the state treasury be turned directly into the state treasury.

In 1893, under Democratic statutes and Democratic administration, these fees amounted to only $89,784.31 per annum. Under Republican statutes and Republican administration in 1903 the fees from this source turned into the general fund amounted to $488,583.78, a net saving to the taxpayers of $398,799.47 per annum.

During this period there have also been placed upon the statute books laws providing for factory inspection, prohibiting the employment of child labor, and providing safeguards in the auditing of public expenses.

Through the passage of the mortgage exemption law, over 100,000 owners of homes are now receiving the benefit of a just reduction of their taxes.

Through Republican legislation and administration during this period the benevolent and penal institutions have been lifted from political control and the wards of the state have been assured humane and efficient treatment. We renew our pledge of devotion to the policy of non-partisanship in the control of these institutions, believing that the trust placed upon those having their affairs in hand is too sacred to be discharged with any end in view but the interests of the commonwealth and the welfare of those thus committed to its care.

These and other acts of legislation and administration illustrate the devotion of the Republican party to the common weal, and to the continuance and amplification of such policies we pledge ourselves.

We are in favor of such wise and just legislation as will adequately protect the shipping, producing and consuming interests of the state, and prevent unjust discrimination in rates and shipping facilities. We favor placing savings banks under state control and regulation.

Primary elections and party nominations should be fully safeguarded both by law and party practice. We heartily approve the action of the state committee in promulgating wholesome rules governing the selection of delegates to state, district and legislative conventions.

The people are directed to consider the advisability of a further system of party rules which shall apply to county, township and legislative primaries or assemblies, and is empowered to adopt the same.

We demand the enactment by the legislature of such additional laws or amendments to existing legislation as may be necessary to secure fair and honest nominations of candidates by all parties.

Since the succession of the Republican party to legislative responsibilities in Indiana in 1893, more than thirty important laws for the benefit and protection of labor have been placed upon the statute books of the state, and these laws are the fruit of further measures under Republican rule in the matter of legislation for the just safeguarding of the interests of the wage-earner.

No state in the Union is more ably represented in the House of Representatives than the state of Indiana by its Republican members. They are men of character, ability and influence, and the people of the state have a just appreciation of the splendid record they have made.

The Republicans of Indiana are proud of the high rank and conspicuous services of Charles W. Fairbanks and Albert J. Beveridge in the senate of the United States, and most heartily approve the record of each of these distinguished leaders in that great legislative body.

We congratulate all friends of wise and sane governmental policies on the return of Mr. Fairbanks to the senate for a second term, by the last General Assembly. Likewise, the next General Assembly should act with equal wisdom in returning Albert J. Beveridge as his own successor to the place in the national councils where his splendid talents have brought honor to his state and nation. We unreservedly endorse Senator Beveridge for re-election, and commend him to the Republican delegation of the next General Assembly as the choice of the Republicans of Indiana, and as deserving the unanimous support of the members of his party in that body.

The Best Family Salve.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel gives instant relief from burns, cures cuts, bruises, sores, eczema, tetter and all abrasions of the skin. In buying Witch Hazel Salve it is only necessary to see that you get the genuine DeWitt's and a cure is certain. #### KENTUCKY EXILES

Form a Society in New York to Keep Old Homs in Mind.

New York, April 29.—A meeting of former residents of Kentucky was held at the Waldorf to organize a society to be known as "The Kentuckians." John G. Carlisle, former secretary of the treasury, presided, and former Senator

Robert Davis, a wealthy and prominent farmer near Linden, committed suicide by hanging himself in his barn. He was sixty years old and leaves a family. Davis had been in poor health and was despondent.

Are You a Dyspeptic? If you are a dyspeptic you owe it to yourself and your friends to get well. Dyspepsia annoys the dyspeptic's friends because his disease sours his disposition as well as his stomach. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will not only cure dyspepsia, indigestion and sour stomach, but this palatable, reconstructive tonic digests and strengthens the whole digestive apparatus, and sweetens the life as well as the stomach. When you take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure the food you eat is enjoyed. It is digested, assimilated and its nutrient properties appropriated by the blood and tissues. Health is the result. Sold by W. F. Peter Drug Co., and A. J. Pellens.

Crum to Be Recognized. Washington, April 29.—President Roosevelt has directed the reappointment of W. D. Crum as collector of customs at Charleston, S. C. The president has received positive assurance that the senate will take up Crum's case immediately on reconvening next session, and that it will be disposed of finally. Until he is confirmed Crum cannot draw any salary, but it is said that his friends have arranged to see that he is provided with ample funds. Should he be confirmed the government will of course pay him the back salary.

Fire in a Michigan Mine. Ishpeming, Mich., April 29.—Fire which broke out in the ninth level of the Oliver Iron Mining company's No. 16 mine is still raging and threatens heavy damage. The shaft is too full of smoke to permit the men to enter.

He Couldn't Endure Unkindness. St. Louis, April 29.—After writing a note saying that fellow-workmen had been unkind to him, August Lotze committed suicide by drowning in the lagoon in Hyde park, where the water is only eighteen inches deep.

Encouragement. She—Yes, I just love dogs! He—Then I'd like to be a dog. She—Never mind; you'll grow.—Harvard Lampoon.

Men have a more acute sense of smell than women.

Quarrel Ended in Murder. Evansville, Ind., April 26.—C. W. Morrison shot and killed T. O. Conkey in a fight near Canneltown. Morrison was arrested.

Eastern Star Grand Officers. Indianapolis, April 29.—The following officers were elected at the meeting of the Indiana grand lodge Order of the Eastern Star: Grand matron, Mrs. Anna C. Banes, Metamora; grand patron, William Conrad, Warsaw; associate grand matron, Mrs. Agnes L. Hartsuck, Kendallville; associate grand patron, Frank M. Pockner, Hartford City; secretary, Mrs. Nettie Ransford, Indianapolis; treasurer, Mrs. Carrie M. Fanning, Butler.

Now He Will Stay Awake. Shanghai, April 29.—The reformer Wang Chao, who was disgraced on account of his friendship for the agitator Kang Yu Wei, returned recently to Pekin and was immediately arrested, and sentenced to imprisonment for life at the instigation of the Manchu prince Natung.

During the last ten years of Republican control of state affairs the state debt has been reduced from $7,520,912 to $2,362,615.12, and the state tax levy has been reduced from 32 cents to 30 1/2 cents on each $100 of taxable property.

The average gross maintenance per capita of all the state institutions has been reduced from $175.70 in 1885 to $109.18 in 1903, and with a population in these institutions of 12,640, as shown by the last statistical report, this alone effects a saving to the taxpayers of $234,877.92 per annum.

The Republican party can never forget the heroic services of our soldiers and sailors upon land and sea. We believe in a pension policy toward those who have borne the burden and heat of battle; their widows and orphans.

We heartily commend the administration of Governor Whitely T. Durbin and the officials associated with him in the management of state affairs. It has been an administration characterized by jealous regard for the welfare of the state, and by zealous and successful endeavor for the promotion of high standards in the conduct of the state's institutions, and by a manifest devotion to the principle of complete divorcement of public affairs from partisan purposes, and that the same scrupulous care and close accountability should be required in the transaction of the business of the state as in the conduct of the affairs of any other great business institution. It has been an administration rendered notable in a crisis, of the majesty of the law which has attracted to it the favorable attention of the country.

Miners Resent Union's Ruling.

Springfield, Ill., April 29.—Two hundred miners at the Woodside Coal company's mine at this city struck yesterday, owing to the sub-district union of the United Mine Workers of America expelling from the union two of the drivers at the mine who had not obeyed the orders of the union. The miners held a meeting last night and will endeavor to get men from the four other mines in the sub-district to take the matter up for settlement.

Crawfordsville, Ind., April 29.—Robert Davis, a wealthy and prominent farmer near Linden, committed suicide by hanging himself in his barn. He was sixty years old and leaves a family. Davis had been in poor health and was despondent.
